JURY DEADLOCKED IN MURDER TRIAL OF WELLSVILLE MAN

Fail To Reach Agreement After Deliberating Nearly 12 Hours.

CROWDS FILL COURT ROOM DURING NIGHT

Ordered To Continue By Judge Wolfe When Report Is Made.

All indications point to a disagreement of the jury in the murder trial of Edward Johnson, 23-year-old negro of Homestead, Pa., who is charged with the murder of Policeman William T. Hyatt of Wellsville, when the jury reported at 11:45 a. m. Tuesday that it was nearly impossible to reach a verdict.

The case has been in the hands of the jury since 4 p. m. Monday. When they failed to come to an agreement at 10 p. m. they were locked up for the night. Deliberations were resumed at 8:30 Tuesday morning.

At 11:45 Tuesday the court bailiff answered the signal from the jury room and reported to the presiding judge that they were still unable to come to any agreement. The judge ordered them to continue their deliberations this afternoon.

Near Agreement Once
Only once did the jury, composed of 10 men and two women, show signs of reaching an agreement. This was at 9:31 o'clock last night when word reached the court that the jurors wished the testimony of two witnesses re-read. Judge Fred H. Wolfe suggested that the jurors retire for the night, but they asked permission to deliberate for another 15 minutes.

This was granted, but when it became certain no agreement was in sight, Judge Wolfe ordered the jury locked up until 8:30 o'clock this morning.

Court Room Filled
Large crowds thronged the courtroom Monday afternoon and the room was well filled far into the night. During the afternoon there were many negroes present, this number dwindling as the hours passed, however, Wellsville, the scene of the tragedy, was abundantly represented in the crowd.

Features of the day were telling pleas for the acquittal of the defendant by Attys. Ben L. Bennett and Blaine Cochran, and a scathing arraignment of the accused by Prosecuting Attorney Jesse C. Hanley, who demanded a verdict of guilt in the first degree be given.

QUARTET TO SING AT BAND CONCERT

Summer Concerts Depend On Support Of Musicians Wednesday Night.

Whether Salem will have summer band concerts the coming season, which have been enjoyed so much by residents of this city in the past, evidenced by the large attendance, will depend much on the success of the 27th annual concert of Quaker City band at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the High school. It was announced Tuesday by John W. Hundertmark, director.

Salem Community Service is sponsoring the concert this year and as an event of interest to the whole community, the soloists on the program represent members of church choirs and include some of the best musical talent in the city. Those who compose this quartet are Miss Grace R. Orr, soprano; Mrs. Charles Cornwell, alto; E. V. Burt, tenor, and Ralph Snyder, basso.

Another feature that will add interest to the program will be a talk by Prof. Peter W. Dykema of the University of Wisconsin, one of the leading musical authorities of the country, who will speak on community music.

Salem Knights Will Go To District Meet

Preparations were made for a district meeting Sunday at East Palestine and for a meeting Tuesday evening at which three candidates will be initiated at a session of Salem council No. 1919, Knights of Columbus, Monday evening at the hall, Broadway.

A joint exemplification of the major degrees on a class of between 50 and 60 candidates, about 10 of them from Salem, will feature the district meeting. Salem council degree team will confer the second degree while T. J. Duffy and staff will be in charge of the third degree. Councils of Salem, Leetonia, Alliance and East Palestine compose this district.

Charles Lease, student of Lawrence college, Appleton, Wis., has returned to Appleton after visiting here during the spring vacation.

Will Investigates Officers Charges

Mrs. Agnes K. Randle & Capt. E. H. Randle.

Secretary of War Weeks has announced, in Washington, he will investigate the charges made by Capt. Edwin H. Randle, Twenty-sixth infantry, U. S. A., and his pretty wife, Mrs. Agnes Karns Randle, formerly of Indianapolis, against Col. A. L. Conger, commanding the regiment, which is stationed at Fort Sam Houston, near San Antonio, Texas.

In the meantime the Randles have filed suit for $100,000 against Col. Conger, alleging defamation of character. Capt. Randle alleges that as the result of the complaint of a brother officer regarding two parties held in his quarters, Col. Conger read Mrs. Randle out of the regiment and told the captain he would be a marked man in the army unless he separated from his wife.

ONE KILLED, THREE INJURED IN TRAIN WRECK AT TOLEDO

Fast Freight Plows Into Oil Train; Flames Destroy Cars.

Toledo, April 3.—As a result of a collision between a Clover Leaf freight train and a string of oil tanks here today, one man is believed to have been killed and three others were probably fatally injured.

J. Flickinger, conductor of the tank car train is missing and believed dead beneath the wreckage.

The injured: J. Walding, Toledo, flagman. A. W. Thomas, engineer and W. Farris, fireman on the Clover Leaf train, of Delphos, O.

All three injured are suffering from scalds and internal injuries.

The wreck occurred early this morning at the Glendale ave. crossing, when the Clover Leaf freight, an extra out of Delphos, plowed through the wooden caboose of the terminal train.

Oil Ignites
The force of the collision set fire to the oil in the tank and within a short time the entire wreckage was in flames. The fire spread rapidly, eating up telephone and telegraph poles as well as the freight cars.

Members of the rescue crew dispatched to the scene of the wreck also had a narrow escape from serious injury, when, a short time after the fire started, the bridge over the Maumee canal, supporting the tangled trains, crashed through one, one car rolling into the ravine below.

The rescuers and firemen tried hard to reach the caboose of the terminal train, where F. Walding, flagman, says he saw Conductor Flickinger asleep shortly before the accident. He failed, however, and it is the belief of officials that Flickinger was killed in the crash and his body incinerated in the flames of the wreck.

WILL OPEN SCHOOL BIDS ON THURSDAY

There will be a special meeting of the Salem board of education at 7:30 p. m. Thursday for the purpose of opening bids for construction of the new $50,000 addition to the High school building.

It is understood that several contractors will compete for the job and bids must be at the superintendent's office by the stipulated time Thursday noon.

Construction of the building will be completed during the summer months.

Miss Helen Glass, 48 East Fourth st., left Tuesday morning for Akron where she will visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bratchi.

Hon. John W. Post, Mayor of the City of Salem, Ohio.

W. Thompson be reinstated as chief of police of the city of Salem."

HARDING'S APPEAL FOR WORLD COURT ABSURD, SAYS COX

Democratic Party Has Splendid Chance To Win, He Says.

Atlanta, Ga., April 3.—"Nothing could be more absurd than for President Harding to go before the people and before the next congress with his appeal for American membership in the international court," James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for the presidency in 1920, declared here today.

Cox arrived in Atlanta for a day's visit enroute from Florida to his home in Dayton, O.

"It is not a question of the president converting the country, but it is a matter of the country converting the president," Cox said.

"Obviously, both Mr. Harding and Mr. Hughes are compelled to accept this public opinion. In his message to the senate just before adjournment the president declared the country is preponderantly for the international court, which shows that he knew it was not a matter of his converting the country. The country has converted him."

Cox also sharply criticized the position of Secretary Hughes in insisting that this country be allowed to name some of the judges of the court.

"No man in the world is more responsible for America not taking part in the nominations, when they were originally made than Secretary Hughes," Cox said.

Failure of the Republican party to carry out promises of co-operation in international affairs is one reason why the Democratic party has a "splendid chance" to win the 1924 election, Cox declared.

"The last campaign will be known as the fraud of 1920," he said. Referring to the race in which he suffered defeat.

"The Republican policy of isolation the ship subsidy and the tariff will be paramount issues in the next presidential campaign," Cox said. "Prohibition will not be among the foremost questions," he added.

RESUMES DUTIES ON TUESDAY MORNING

Dismissal Order Reversed By Civil Service Commission At Brief Session Monday Night When No Charges Are Filed.

Chief of Police T. W. Thompson is once again head of the Salem police department as the result of his reinstatement to office Monday night by the municipal civil service commission, meeting at city hall.

Reinstatement of the chief came after a very brief session of the commission which lasted just 49 minutes.

The commission found after hearing the evidence presented that "no charges have been presented as required by law and it is the decision of the civil service commission that T. W. Thompson be reinstated as chief of police of the city of Salem."

Chief Thompson resumed his duties as police head at 8 a. m. Tuesday after being suspended since 9 a. m. Sunday by orders of Mayor John W. Post, acting upon the demand of Gov. Vic Donahey that he remove the police chief within 30 days.

The session was marked by an utter lack of prosecution, not one charge being presented against Chief Thompson. The state was not represented at the hearing.

Gov. Donahey's action in demanding the removal of Chief Thompson was vigorously condemned by Atty. H. L. McCarthy, of the law firm of Metzger & McCarthy, attorneys for the police chief.

"Gov. Donahey must proceed according to the law just the same as anyone else in the state," declared Mr. McCarthy in presenting the case to the commission during which he defended the chief and declared that he "had always been honest and faithful in the administration of his office."

Prior to hearing the civil service commissions held its regular monthly session and it was just 7:40 p. m. when they adjourned to the office of Mayor Post to begin the hearing.

In addition to John W. Davidson, F. L. Stewart, R. K. Yates, members of the commission and Roy W. Harris, clerk, Mayor John W. Post, Chief Thompson and Atty. McCarthy attended the hearing.

After Clerk Harris read the order of dismissal from Mayor Post to the chief and the latter's reply, the appeal from the order to the commission was read.

Ask For Charges
President Davidson of the commission then asked if there were any charges to be presented against Chief Thompson. There was no response. When asked specifically if he had any charges, Mayor Post replied that he "had no charges to present against the chief, none whatever."

When no charges were presented he clerk was instructed to read the civil service law relative to dismissal of police chiefs, in which it is clearly stated that the mayor has the authority to suspend his police chief upon charges of nonfeasance, misfeasance or malfeasance but that these charges must be certified to the commission by the mayor.

Atty. McCarthy then took the floor on behalf of the chief and after quoting the general code of Ohio relative to methods of dismissal of police or fire chiefs, declared that it was their contention that the reasons for removal were insufficient as contained in the dismissal order of Mayor Post, because the law had not been followed.

"Mayor Post has stated that he acted upon the demand of the governor in dismissing Chief Thompson. Gov. Donahey must proceed according to the laws of the state just the same as he mayor or anyone else has to."

Must Follow Law
"The mayor does not need to pay any attention to the order of Gov. Donahey that he remove the police chief because the governor is not following the law," declared Atty. McCarthy.

"It is absolutely necessary that the mayor have charges to prefer against the chief before he can dismiss him or have him removed. We do not contend that the governor cannot remove the chief on the order of Gov. Donahey and he cannot do so because the law has not been complied with by the governor," continued Mr. McCarthy.

"Chief Thompson has been honest and faithful in his administration of office and no complaint has ever been filed against him. Nobody has ever had charges against the chief here, they may have some in Columbus, but if they do where are they?"

"There are no charges of misconduct or anything else, as required by law, and we ask that you reinstate the chief to office. After hearing the evidence as required by law, you now have nothing else to do but reinstate him," concluded Mr. McCarthy.

Hearing of the case consumed just 15 minutes and it was 32 minutes later that the commission returned after holding a secret conference. Decision was read by Clerk Harris, and Mayor Post immediately announced that Chief Thompson would be back on the job Tuesday morning.

Will Notify Governor
A transcript of the meeting and a copy of the commission's finding will be forwarded to Gov. Donahey immediately by Mayor Post.

The case cannot be reopened now through the common pleas court at Lisbon. What action Gov. Donahey will take in the matter is unknown. Although Prohibition Com-

LONG DISPUTE IN RAILWAY PROBLEM IS SETTLED BY U.S.

Mediation Of American Minister Results In Settlement.

WILL NOW CONNECT MAIN RAIL ROUTES

Controversy Arose Over Dispute Regarding Contract Terms.

Washington, April 3.—With the approval of the American state department and through the mediation of Arthur H. Geisler, the United States minister to Guatemala, the international railways of Central America and the government of Guatemala have settled a dispute of 15 years standing and reached an agreement for the immediate construction of a missing link in the Pan American railroad system, it was learned officially here today.

The new line will afford continuous connection by rail between New York city and the Gulf of Fonseca, bordered by the Central American republics of Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua. It will also shorten the traveling distance between the Pacific coasts of these three countries and New Orleans and other Atlantic ports of the United States by approximately one week, via the Guatemalan port of Puerto Barrios.

The contract which has just been negotiated at Guatemala City and presented to the Guatemalan congress for final approval was made possible through the assistance of the United States.

According to officials here the principal credit goes to Adrian Recinos, who has just retired as foreign minister of Guatemala; Francisco Sanchez La Tour, the Guatemalan minister to the United States and Mr. Geisler, the American minister. The concluding negotiations were conducted by Rafael D. Ponciana, the new Guatemalan minister of public works.

Dates Back To 1908
The controversy between the Republic of Guatemala and the International Railways resulted from a concession granted in 1908 to Minor C. Keith of New York, noted builder of Central American railroads. Keith was to build the line from the town of Zacapa in Central Guatemala to northern frontier of Salvador.

Before actual work could be started a dispute arose as to the terms of the contract and in 1920, President Herrera issued a decree, declaring the Keith concession had lapsed. The railroad company countered with a demand for heavy damages. One of the

The committee in charge of the evening's program to be given at 6:30 p. m. Thursday at the home of the Charles H. Carey post No. 56, American Legion, has arranged a very good program.

It is intended to take the entire war in, divide the experiences up between several men and let the public see what the ex-serviceman had to go through with. However, each speaker will have to curtail his talk to three minutes as it is necessary to make the evening short and snappy.

Following is the program as arranged:

Assembly, American Legion rooms Spielde block, 6 p. m.; soup, served by the American Legion auxiliary, 6:15 p. m.; music, Peerless Pep orchestra; introducing John Campbell, "O. D." toastmaster; GHQ represented by Carl Yengling, commander Charles H. Carey post No. 56, in an address of welcome; songs: "The Lone Soldier," "Shavetail," "The Lone Soldier," "Lorraine," "L. D. ## The Woman Who Mourns

IN a neighboring state when a spectacular case was up for consideration by the state pardon board, a pardon for a prisoner was asked on the ground that the prisoner's wife was losing her health grieving over his imprisonment. Other grounds were included in the appeal but the argument for pardon rested in a large way on the fact that the woman at home was mourning, her health would be wrecked if she continued to worry and would be restored if the prisoner was released.

If it is once decided that such a statement of fact is a valid ground for pardon, and that decision is accepted by other states, fully one-half the prisoners in all prisons will be eligible for pardon. In the Ohio penitentiary there are 2,600 prisoners, in the state reformatory there are about 1,400. In Ohio there are thousands of women mourning over the imprisonment of husband, father, brother or son. Left without support, they toil and slave by day and weep and mourn by night, because these men and boys are in prison. They are good women, godly women, who have sought to do their part in life, they are innocent of wrong-doing, yet must bear the burdens of others. In the administration of criminal law it is the women and the children, who have not offended, who must do the suffering. It is their part to sorrow and toil and bear humiliation. They are the innocent victims. The genius of man has not brought forth laws and customs to relieve them of that unfair portion.

These facts and the broken, sorrowing victims have a mighty appeal to the heart. If those in authority followed the promptings of their hearts many would be released. But the heart often prompts actions the judgment cannot approve. In official life about prisons the claim that women are ruining their health mourning is heard many times. Doubtless it is true in many cases, but it never has been established as a valid cause for a pardon. It has been considered as a factor, doubtless, in many instances.
It would be impossible to enforce a rule that said it could not be pleaded in a hearing. Friends and relatives but follow the natural promptings of the heart to plead it. They represent the human, not the legal side of the case. Something might be done to lighten the toll forced on women by having prisoners employed and paid, but development of employment in prison is difficult. Meantime, there will be many instances where the woman who mourns has her case presented with all its pathetic features and wonders why her plea and sorrow will not open the prison doors.

20 YEARS AGO

(Issue of April 3, 1903.)

Salem will be a dry town next Monday. Today Mayor Baker issued a proclamation to all saloon keepers or proprietors of places where liquor is sold, that they must be closed in conformity with the state law on election day, April 6.

Two members of the Dry Street Friends church will leave early in May for Africa to devote their time to missionary work. They are Dr. and Mrs. Elishua Blackburn, Cleveland, formerly of Salem. Mrs. Blackburn was formerly Miss Virginia Hole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hole, Ellsworth, Me.

President Theodore Roosevelt's special train, bearing the presidential party and others on the longest western trip which the president of the United States has ever taken while in office, passed through Salem last night but did not stop here.

Dal Miller, for some time employed as brakeman on the Salem division of the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western railroad, has resigned. He has taken a position at the plant of the Deming company.

Monday J. E. Ream will leave for Akron, where he will join his two sisters and they will leave on the same day for Iowa, Kan., where they will visit a brother. They will also visit in Iowa before returning home.

Marriage license has been issued to Joseph Calladine and Nellie M.
Nold, both of Salem. Rev. W. H.
Dewey will perform the ceremony.
Nellie, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wisner, Washington st., who was painfully scalded by hot coffee Sunday morning, is improving slowly.

FIND IT HARD TO BE QUIET

According to Critic, the Ordinary American Knows Little About Sitting at His Ease.

The ability to sit quiet is not too common among Americans. For some reason many people find it easier to talk if they pluck at the upholstered arm of the chair in which they sit, or twist a corner of the sofa cushion, or swing one foot in listless motion, or play with a pencil or a paper cutter or some other object. Fidgeting is a disagreeable habit; the other person finds his attention becoming more and more fixed upon the repetition of meaningless mechanical movements and more and more distracted from other matters.

Because fidgeting raises in this way
a barrier to easy social intercourse, it handicaps the person who fidgets. Moreover, it expresses lack of poise and self-control. Restfulness is of the essence of dignity. The person who has not trained himself to sit and talk without any undue nervous movements of the fingers and feet has not really achieved complete mastery over his fingers and feet. A good rule to observe with regard to those members is to use them when they ought to be used and at all other times to insist upon their being quiet.—Fouth's Companion.

The Glory of Georgia.

After more than a century of Russian rule the little state of Georgia, a Christian republic between Armenia and the Caucasian mountains, is naturally proud of her regained independence, and very jealous of her newly won rights, as was recently shown by her protest entered at Lausanne against Russia's right to speak for her at the conference. The history of Georgia stretches far back into the centuries and she has enjoyed more than one era of prosperity.
In that time, Kennel, a tolerably well-known traveler of the Nineteenth century, described the country, possibly with exaggeration, as the most beautiful and highly favored region in the world. In one respect at least this praise was deserved, for the loveliness of the Georgian women was always proverbial throughout the Near East, and the fame of their beauty spread to western lands.

The world must come back to Colo-research indicates that the two rich mineral deposits of the Belgian Congo are only enough to supply the world for about three years. These African radium ores discovered in 1917 have been found to be much richer than the deposits in this country and the cheaper production made possible by the fact has already caused a drop in the market price from $100,000 a gram to $70,000 a gram. Unless richer deposits are soon found elsewhere, the world will again be dependent for its supply on the ores in our western states.

OUR READERS

Defends Miss Snyder
Editor News—As a life-long friend of Miss Snyder the writer cannot let Rev. Manning's discourteous letter of March 29 pass unnoticed. We would be deserting a tried and true friend if we did.
She has lived all her life in Salem, and is a woman of sterling integrity. No one who knows her would ever doubt her veracity.
In the first place Miss Snyder was not "posing as a critic." She was merely giving her impressions of the Passion Play to her friends through the medium of the Daily News.
In the second place she did not go to Oberammergau prejudiced against the Passion Play through the reading of an article in the Atlantic Monthly.
If Rev. Manning had not been prejudiced himself he would have read Miss Snyder's letter with more care and noted that the article in question was published in November, 1922, two months after the Passion Play.
Furthermore, we have not been able, after carefully reading over her letter again, to find any place where she says one word about the villagers making "a mint of money out of the play." She did say they were doing a thriving business that Sunday, as of course they would with 10,000 visitors in the village, and all places of business open.
Miss Snyder said she saw no evidence of suffering in the portion of Germany through which she passed. We have read repeatedly of other travelers who make the same statement.
Miss Snyder's friends are justly incensed by the ungentlemanly and unwarranted attack.

"You can't stop people from buying Joint-Ease for sore throat and cold in chest," writes one of our druggist friends. "They say it's the best ever."
We know that, of course, but please remember that Joint-Ease is for stiff, swollen, painful joints, whether rheumatic or not, and its tremendous sale for that purpose proves that it is the one joint remedy that gets the most satisfying results.

Low Temperature Is Recorded In March

March of 1923 according to Weatherman Lawrence Copeland of Millport, had a low temperature, three degrees colder, than the low temperature of March, 1922.
The coldest temperature recorded by the government thermometers was on March 9, when the mercury dropped to seven degrees above zero.
There was a total snow fall of 2.05 inches. There were only two clear days out of the 30.
March of the year of 1916 comes to bat with the coldest weather on record for that month at the station. March 31, 1923, closed with a temperature of nine degrees above zero.
The month was remarkable for the fact that the temperature was almost uniformly winterish. Only three days showed spring temperature. The highest noted was on the fourth day of the month when the mercury rose to 65 degrees.

Kidney Disease

Clean Up Poison Soaked Kidneys Advise Dr. Carey

Thousands Die Every Year Because They Allow Poisonous Deposits To Accumulate In Kidneys

Don't flush your kidneys with harsh makeshifts, says Dr. Carey; they are too frail and delicately constructed to treat them rough.

For 40 years I have been using my famous Prescription No. 777 for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price.

Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health.

If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffs under eyes, clammy feet or moist palms, backache or sideache you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Prescription No. 777 right away.

It has conquered thousands of cases of kidney and bladder diseases and is the medicine you can always depend upon. The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Floding's drug store and Bolger & French's.

For Handling Coil Stock.

The loading and unloading of heavy coils of wire or rod-stock, never a simple proposition, is expeditiously effected by means of a novel conveyor developed by a Wickliffe (O.) concern for use with its electric tramrail system. The coil conveyor is in the form of a steel hook about eight feet long, and will carry a ton of rod-stock at a time. In conjunction with electric hoists it makes the loading and unloading of this sort of metal cheap and easy.—Scientific American.

Crazed With Pain, Man Operates, Dies

Toledo, April 3.—Crazed with pain, Andrew Mikula, 59, operated on himself with a butcher knife and died of loss of blood shortly afterwards here today. "The pain was too great, Mary, so I operated on myself," Mikula told his wife. "Over there is what hurt me," he said and pointed to a piece of an internal organ, which he had severed and thrown to the center of the room. Mrs. Mikula saw blood spurting from her husband's chest, into which he had also plunged the knife. A physician was called but Mikula bled to death before his arrival.

CATHOLIC PRELATE EXECUTED, REPORT

Moscow, April 3.—(INS)—The Rev. Father Butkiewicz, Catholic prelate sentenced to death at the same time as Archbishop Cieplak, has been executed, it was formally announced today. The manner of death was not described, but it is supposed he was shot. Rev. Father Butkiewicz was a Pole by birth. He was arrested at the same time as Archbishop Cieplak and 15 other prelates all charged with working against the Moscow soviet government. When he was condemned to death last week along with the archbishop, protests were made against the sentence. While the archbishop's sentence was commuted to 10 years imprisonment, the sentence of the priest was unchanged. The basis of the charges against the prelates dated back to the war between Russia and Poland. Churchmen of Polish birth were accused of having "treasonable intercourse with the enemy in war time." Archbishop Cieplak, it is understood, will be taken from Moscow immediately to enter upon his sentence. He is an old man and his friends declare that he will not live through the first year if kept in solitary confinement. Before announcement had been made that Father Butkiewicz was dead, a report was circulated he would be exchanged for Communist prisoners held by foreign countries.

Democrat Elected Mayor Of Detroit

Detroit, April 3.—Frank E. Doremus, former Democratic congressman was elected mayor of Detroit in the special election yesterday, over Dr. James W. Hughes, for several years police commissioner. The race was a one-sided affair, Doremus winning by a majority of 53,952. A heavy vote was cast. The Republicans elected the three candidates throughout the state in various minor offices.

This is a state road and under the control of the state highway department. The county engineer is a representative of the state department here. It will be up to him to handle the matter. Willis Vogan was appointed as a member of the Soldiers burial committee of the county, representing Cent township by the county commissioner yesterday. He takes the place made vacant by the death of William Hostetter.

LONG DISPUTE

(Continued from first page.) principal points of issue in the dispute was whether or not the railroad should run through the city of Chilquimula. Keith declared that to run the railroad through this city, as demanded by the Guatemalan government, would cost too much money. In final contract, which has just been signed, he agreed to conform to the route desired by the government and is to receive $1,500,000 (American money) for the construction work.

Americans Lend Hand
Before this, however, the American ministers to Guatemala, acting under instructions from the president and the state department, had tried to effect an agreement between the contending parties. Major General George W. Davis, who served as governor of the Panama Canal zone, Porto Rico and the Philippines, acted as mediator, but without result. After General Jose Orellana succeeded Herrera as president of Guatemala in 1921, negotiations again were undertaken, but both the railway company and the government came to the conclusion that an agreement was impossible.

About this time Arthur H. Geissler arrived in Guatemala City as the new American minister with instructions from Secretary of State Hughes to do whatever he could to adjust this old dispute. Geissler has succeeded and Senator Don La Tour, the Guatemalan minister in Washington, expressed the opinion today that the new contract will be accepted shortly by the Guatemalan congress.

Conkle Re-engaged
Amos Conkle has been re-engaged by the Salem board of education as custodian of Riley Athletic field. Mr. Conkle served in this capacity during the past season and his services were approved and considered as necessary this season. He will assume his duties immediately and continue in the board's employ until Nov. 1.

MOTHER'S CALL TOO STRONG FOR EMMET

Lisbon, April 3.—After applying Judge Riddle for aid, stating that he had been abused by his stepfather Emmet May, aged 14 years, after spending several days in Lisbon, let for his home because of a longing to see his mother.

The boy was ragged and dirty when he appeared here. He was given a new outfit. Judge Riddle in Juvenile court made an effort to find him a home. Sunday morning after attending Sunday school at the Methodist church, the boy disappeared and returned to his home near New Waterford. There will be no attempt made to apprehend him unless he fails to stay at home or word comes to the court that he is being abused.

Newspapers all over the county willingly printed the boy's appeal to a home. As a result, many applications were received by the court from worthy people who were anxious to give him a good home and provide for his welfare.

Man Injured When Thrown From Horse

George Miser is confined to his home on the Goshen rd., suffering from injuries sustained when a horse which he was riding last Sunday threw him violently to the ground.

In the accident Mr. Miser was badly bruised and the ligament in one shoulder were dislocated. An x-ray examination made at the Central Clinic hospital showed that no bones were fractured.

The accident happened near the home of Jack Hendricks and Mr. Hendricks, who was in Miser's company, assisted him in reaching home.

PROBE OF WALKER MURDER STARTED

Attorney General Crabbe Present As Special Jury Convenes.

With Atty. Gen. C. C. Crabbe present in person, the investigation of the Dr. O. C. Walker murder case by a special grand jury composed of 12 men and three women was started in Canton Monday afternoon, when the first witness was called.

Common Pleas Judge Charles Krichbaum read a specially prepared charge to the grand jurors before they retired to hear the testimony of witnesses called in the murder inquiry.

With the departure of Atty. Gen. Crabbe, the investigation is placed in the hands of his special representative, Atty. Sherman Deaton of Urbana.

Prominent Stark county citizens chosen on the grand jury include the names of Dr. W. H. McMaster, Alliance; C. Y. Kay, Alliance; H. B. Kramer, Frank Hemperly, and Jacob Graves, Massillon; Guy C. Hiner, Rev. James L. Herron, Mrs. Mollie Jean Buchman, Mrs. Belle Norwood, C. W. Clifford, H. S. Hoover, F. E. Moeck, all of Canton; E. S. Davis and Mrs. Mary Stanton, Alliance.

Plan Independent Potters' Organization
East Liverpool, April 3.—An announcement was made Tuesday that an independent potters union, probably will be formed at a meeting here of suspended members of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters on Thursday night.

Those who are behind the project to form a new union are said to be potters who have been suspended to failure to pay the 5 per cent assessment voted a few months ago to build up the strike benefit fund of the brotherhood which was almost exhausted during the recent strike of general ware potters.

They declare they believe a 5 per cent assessment is too great, and feel that $2.50 a month would be a more suitable assessment.

WOMAN TO STAND ON CITIZENSHIP

HAS NOT SAME INFLUENCE IN LEGISLATION SHE HAD PRIOR TO SUFFRAGE DAYS.

SENTIMENT THING OF PAST

In Old Days in Congress Women Could Get Almost Anything They Wanted Except Suffrage—Looked Upon as Voters Now—No Sex Influence.

Washington.—The onlooker on the doings of congress and of the departments in Washington finally has become convinced that woman has not the same influence in legislation that she had prior to the days of suffrage. The reason seems to be that in the old days it was a case of woman and sentiment combined, and that now, woman being a voter, she must depend for her influence not on sex but on her citizenship.

In the old days in congress the women could get almost anything they wanted if there seemed to be a general demand for it on the part of the womanhood of the country. Old-time congresses were loath to deny woman anything she asked except suffrage, and there are plenty of instances to prove the point.

Several of these instances stand out in memory. Years ago prior to the days of prohibition there were at the various army posts what were known as canteens, refreshment places under government jurisdiction where an enlisted man could buy a drink of beer or light wine. The army authorities believed in the canteen because they said it kept soldiers on the reservations who otherwise would leave to secure the hard liquors of the nearby saloons. The Women's Christian Temperance Union was opposed to the canteen and it sent representatives to Washington to secure its abolition.

Established by Proctor. It was known at the time that a large majority of the members of congress were in favor of retaining the canteen as a means of preserving army discipline and for keeping the men contented. The War department was in favor of it, all the old commanding officers were in favor of it, and yet when the women appeared in the halls of congress in behalf of their measure, out the canteen went.

The canteen by the way was established when Redfield Proctor of Vermont, a strong believer in temperance in every way, was secretary of war. He abolished the old army post sutler stores which did not make for temperance, replaced them with the canteens, which he believed would solve the problem of hard drinking, and to some extent the problem of desertions.

In 1903 when preparations were being made for the great exposition at St. Louis to commemorate the Louisiana purchase, congress was asked to make an appropriation of several million dollars for the cause of the exhibition. When the measure for the appropriation came from the senate committee it contained an amendment providing that $100,000 of the amount should be given, so to speak, in fee simple to the board of lady managers of the exposition to do with whatsoever the board willed. Memory has it that the board of lady managers was not compelled to account in any way for the manner in which the money was spent. Such was the sentiment of the senate committee and its belief in the sterling integrity of the ladies in the case.

The men managers of the exposition did not like this way of doing things. The chairman of the whole affair came to Washington to prevent this giving of absolute financial independence to the board of lady managers. Three of the ladies came to Washington to plead with the senators and as a result sentiment won the day. Perhaps for the first time in the history of the government money was appropriated and no accounting for its expenditure was demanded, although of course it is presumed the accounting was made.

One Failure Recorded.

The women of the United States, or at least one powerful organization of women, failed once upon a time in one of their endeavors. They tried to make things so warm for a vice president of the United States that he would be forced to shut up a bar in a hotel, in which he was said to be financially interested. So far as can be remembered, this was the only time when women in the old days failed of her purpose.

It may be that the people have forgotten it now, but during the administration of Benjamin Harrison, the rhymesters got at it and produced this: "Johnny runs the Sunday school, Levi tends the bar, Benny runs the White House And there you are."

The "Johnny" in the case was Postmaster General Wanamaker, who taught a Sunday school, the "Levi" in the case was Levi P. Morton, vice president of the United States, and of course who the "Benny" was is self-evident. Vice President Morton, as has been said, was supposed to have a financial interest in a hotel which had a bar in an out-of-the-way part of the basement. The liquor selling was not flouted, but the women got after it and for a time made things a little uncomfortable for a high official of government who probably had no control over the situation.

NIGHT SESSIONS FOR LEGISLATURE

Appropriation Bill Ready For Passage; Bus Bill May Be Settled.

Columbus, April 3.—Night sessions of senate and house are in order in view of the week's legislative recess which is scheduled to start at the end of this week. The ban against introduction of bills was lifted at last evening's session. A considerable number of measures, it is said, will be dumped into the legislative hopper.

Passage of the $72,000,000 appropriation bill is expected this week. The senate and house are expected to adjust their difficulties relative to the bus truck regulation bill.

The senate it is believed, will concur in the action of the house, which passed the Finckel bill, giving Ohio courts the right to sentence women prisoners to the Marysville reformatory for long terms, for violation of dry laws and to compel male prohibition offenders to work, guarded by deputy sheriffs on the highways.

Army Submits 115 Questions To Citizens Under Training

Washington, April 2.—The United States Army has gone Thomas A. Edison one better by compiling a list of 115 questions to be answered by all persons attending the citizens' military training camps this summer.

This "questionnaire" is part of an official training manual called "Studies in citizenship," made public at the war department today. The manual contains an introduction by Gen. Pershing, commenting upon the vagueness of the average soldier's ideas concerning citizenship, and urging the importance of these studies, which he says, are being issued to all officers of all components of the army, with the suggestion that much can be accomplished toward making the nation impregnable by encouraging educational institutions to strengthen and clarify their instruction on subjects such as these.

Here are a few of the questions: "Why is it impossible to gather figs from thisistle?" "Who won the war against Germany?" "What is a slacker?" "Can a man be a slacker in time of peace?" "How does a careless baseball player interfere with the success of the team?" "What difference does it make whether the voters in America vote intelligently or not?" "How may the constitution be amended?" "Can you suggest any changes or additions that would make the constitution fit present conditions better?"

The "studies in citizenship" are divided into eight lessons, under four general headings, as follows: First, the meaning of liberty; second, constitutional government; third, a national defense; fourth, military training.

A part of the study period, according to the directions contained in the manual, is to be taken up in the reading, by the instructor, of certain specified passages from the Declaration of Independence, the constitution, American patriots and the patriotic speeches by Patrick Henry and other writings and utterances of noted Americans of more recent years. A few of the "readings" are from modern works on history and economics.

When the instructor has finished the reading there is to be a period of general discussion, designed to give the soldiers an opportunity to express their ideas on the various points.

Inexpensive Method of Reducing Dangerous Swollen Veins at Home

Doctor's Recent Discovery. Also Heals Ulcers, Boils, Carbuncles, Abscesses and Open Sores in a Few Days

The world progresses. Today ailments that took weeks to cure can now be ended in a few days. If you have varicose veins or bunches you can start this today to bring them back to normal size, and if you are wise you will do so.

Just get an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil at any dispensing pharmacist and apply it night and morning to the enlarged veins. It is very powerful and penetrating, and only a little is required.

After a few days treatment the veins will begin to grow smaller and by regular use will soon reduce to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil besides being one of the most powerful of antiseptics capable of destroying the most pernicious germs and the poisons caused by them, is also a marvelous healing agent.

One application for instance stops the itching of eczema, and a few applications causes the eruptions to dry up, scale off and completely disappear. It is equally as effective in barber's itch, salt rheum, redness and inflammatory skin trouble.

People who want to reduce varicose veins, wens or gollers, or get rid of eczema, ulcers, boils abscesses or piles in a few days should not hesitate to get a bottle at once. It is so powerful that a small bottle lasts a long time. Any pharmacy can supply you.

"We Never Used To Get Outdoors"

There's gladness in the air today. I heard this friendly park squirrel say: As he stretched his hands right out toward me And took his food so eagerly.

He made me laugh and dance with joy. (You see, I'm only a little boy.) My mother smiled—almost out loud— And then the squirrel was very proud.

Mother and I had lots of fun There in the park where squirrels run, Where kids can really shout and play. I hope we'll go again some day.

We never used to get out doors, And I just played around on floors; But now Dad's bought a Chevrolet, He's happy too—yes, we're all that way.

DONAHEY ASKS FOR ACTION

Wants Hopkins Nomination Either Confirmed or Rejected.

RAPS UTILITIES COMMISSION

Charges That Policies of Commissioners Poor and Mauller, Whose Resignations He Has Requested, Have Been Out of Harmony With His Purpose to Reorganize the Commission—Legislative Review.

Columbus, April 3. — Governor Donahay, in a message to the general assembly, asks for action on his appointment of William A. Hopkins of Cincinnati as a member of the public utilities commission to succeed C. C. Marshall, whose term had expired.

"I desire to put this matter squarely up to the general assembly and its individual members, particularly to the members of the senate," the governor said. "Do you want to co-operate with the chief executive or do you want to ignore and block him in every manner conceivable?"

"The senate has taken no action on that appointment and no reason has been given why he has not been confirmed," the governor pointed out. "Until the senate confirms the appointment, the present governor cannot have representation on the commission or be held responsible for any acts of the commission." He urged that the senate either confirm or reject the appointment at once, so that he "may have the advice of that body as contemplated by the laws."

Donahay told the legislators that Hopkins' appointment was a "personal appointment," and was not suggested by any political or public utility interest. Hopkins, he said, is a man of integrity, capability, fairness and courage, who has never been connected with any utility corporation, but has had a wide experience as a business man and public official.

Pointing out that in his campaign he had pledged himself to make the public utilities commission "function and give a square deal to both utility and citizen, or ask the legislature to abolish the commission," Donahay said it is still his purpose to carry out this promise if "humanly possible."

"The senate has so far blocked my efforts to even place one new member on the utilities commission," Donahay added. "In other words, the senate has presumed to become the appointing power, whereas the law places this in the chief executive."

Referring to the fact that he has asked the resignation of Commissioners Poor and Mauller, Donahay charged that their policies "have been and may be expected to remain out of harmony with my purpose to reorganize the commission." The commission as now constituted, he said, has "paralyzed municipal control and reduced many cities to a condition of helplessness or deadly indifference," which should be remedied without delay. He said he hopes that Poor and Mauller may be "public spirited enough to relinquish their positions in the interests of the people of Ohio, who have lost confidence in the present commission because of rate decisions in recent years." If the two commissioners refuse to resign, Donahay concluded, it is his intention "to appeal to the general assembly to come to my assistance in my endeavors to obtain a new personnel on the commission."

The legislative program of Governor Donahay will not be made a special order of business in the house next Tuesday. By a vote of 29 for to 79 against, Minority Leader Atkinson's resolution to relieve committees and place bills carrying out Donahay's recommendations on the calendar was voted down. Three Republicans—Beck of Cuyahoga, Sullivan of Mahoning and Brashers of Hocking—voted with Democrats to consider the governor's proposals.

Representative Taft's compulsory debt funding bill which passed the house, is now before the senate. The bill requires every board of education to submit to the state auditor a list of its indebtedness up to July 1, 1933, and to make provision for the issuance of bonds to cover such indebtedness, in lieu of further borrowing of funds for operation in advance of the regular tax collections.

Unless the measure is enacted, Representative Taft said, schools in at least a third of the districts of the state will be closed next year. "It was hoped that Ohio had done with the enactment of deficiency legislation," said Representative Taft. "But in view of a loophole left in the Griswold act of two years ago, it is found necessary to help the school districts to wipe their slates clean and start all over afresh."

In many districts, according to Mr. Taft, schools are being operated on money borrowed in anticipation of taxes for the ensuing year. He cited the situation at East Liverpool, where, although the district has a large duplicate, the entire tax collection for this year is needed to pay last year's debts because of extensive borrowing, and the board of education has come to a point where it relies on the state and for aid for weak school districts to keep its schools going.

Attorney General Crabbe has ruled that the Dow-Aiken tax in Ohio, which assessed a penalty against property on which illegal traffic in liquor has been carried on, is superior to the claim of a mortgage previously given on the property. In an opinion written for Edward S. Stanton, prosecuting attorney at Cleveland, Mr. Crabbe said "section 6212-33 of the Miller bill, does not change the law relative to the tax assessed against real estate under the Dow-Aiken law, and such tax becomes a lien against the property superior to that of a mortgage previously given on said real estate."

The Blossom bill embodying one of Governor Donahay's recommendations, namely, that authority be granted for modifying the plans for the proposed new London prison farm, was passed by the house. The house negatived this bill last week, but reconsidered and passed it, and the senate finance committee is said to be ready to give it a favorable report.

The original plan, approved by a former legislature, called for a $12,000,000 institution. They could not be altered except by the approval of the legislature and both former Governor Davis and Governor Donahay made urgent recommendation that a smaller prison plant be provided for. If built under the Blossom plan the new prison will provide work and quarters for some 600 men. Additional employment will be given through the plan to increase prison production of state-owned supplies. There are now 320 prisoners at the farm.

If the new plan goes through and the prison is built, the penitentiary in Columbus will be maintained as a place of confinement for the more desperate character of criminals and those who can not be trusted "outside the walls."

Senator L. L. Marshall and Joseph J. Howe of Cleveland were completely exonerated in the report of the special senate committee which held an investigation of reports and charges to the effect that they had been identified with irregularities incident to a senate bill seeking to modify the liability of hotels for the property of their patrons. The report, which has been submitted to the senate also absolves the Ohio Hotel Association from any connection with the alleged irregularities and avers that there had been no testimony offered which would "reflect in the slightest degree on either of the two senators or the hotel association, but recommends that a transcript of the evidence taken be turned over to Prosecutor John R. King of Franklin county "for such action as he may deem advisable" in connection with other persons brought into the case.

On April 6, both houses will recess until April 26, when they will return to "clean up" correct any errors discovered during the recess and act on any bills Governor Donahay may veto during the recess.

Fixing of the recess date for April 6 followed objection in the house against plans of the legislative leaders, who had decided both house and senate would recess today until April 20. A resolution fixing these dates was introduced in the senate by Floor Leader Ryder of Henry county, and was adopted without opposition. The house rejected the proposal. After the vote the resolution was reconsidered, amended to make the recess date and reconvening date each a week later, and the house then accepted the amendments.

The senate passed a bill making the exhibition of a movie film without approval by the board of censors punishable by a fine of $50 to $300 for first offense and $100 to $500 for subsequent offenses. The house recently passed the measure, which was introduced by Representative Gordon of Logan, a minister. It now goes to the governor. The bill changes the present movie laws by raising the fines and denies the offenders the right of trial by jury.

Upon reconsideration the senate passed another "equal rights" for women bill by Senator Clark of Champaign county, which was defeated last week. This bill, which now goes before the house, removes any sex discrimination in setting salaries for school teachers.

Sponsored by Ohio wool growers the McClintock "truth in fabric" bill passed the house. It requires all fabrics or garments purporting to contain wool to be labeled showing the amount of virgin wool in the material. It now goes to the senate.

The special legislative committee that investigated the fraud charges in the contest for the seat in the house of representatives of Robert S. Wynn, Democrat of Pike county, has recommended that the attorney general or both, impanel special grand jury to indict the persons involved. The committee declared that there was a "vast amount of fraud, corruption and political debauchery in the last election in Pike county." Representative Wynn was exonerated of any connection with the corrupt practices, the committee finding that he had no knowledge of fraud, and recommended dismissing of the charge against him and that he be permitted to retain the contested seat. The contest had been brought by former Representative Harry L. Foster, Republican, whom Wynn defeated in the November election.

Gained Strength, Weight and Now Doing Own Work, by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Marion, Ind.—"I was all run-down, nervous and bent over. I could hardly drag around, let alone do my work. I read some letters in the papers telling what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and I thought I would try it. Then a man told me my husband about his wife and what good it had done her and wanted him to have me try it. I took one bottle and could see what it did for me in a week's time, and when I had taken three bottles I had gained both in strength and weight and was doing my own work. I took it before my last baby was born and it helped me so much. I sure am glad to recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who suffers from female ailments, for I know by experience what it can do. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, also the Liver Pills, too, and think them fine." Mrs. W. M. Elmer, 629 E. Grant Street, Marion, Indiana.

A record of nearly fifty years service should convince you of the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

CHURCH RECEIVES 21 NEW MEMBERS

Rev. Davis, Washingtonville
Pastor, Baptizes 18
Easter Sunday.

Resulting from a week's program of Passion services leading up to the Easteride, 21 new members have been added to the Methodist Episcopal church of Washingtonville, according to announcement made by the pastor, Rev. C. C. Davis. Eighteen of the number were given the baptism at the morning and evening services at the church Easter Sunday. Communion was observed at the service Sunday night. Rev. T. W. Anderson of Alliance assisted at this service and preached a sermon on "The Power of God."

Seventy-five people attended the sunrise prayer meeting at 6 a. m. Sunday and the Sunday school attendance reached 200. The collection was $44.65.

At 7:30 p. m. Thursday Rev. Mr. Davis will meet the newly converted members of the church and a general invitation is extended to the young people to attend this meeting, for which special arrangements are being made.

Friday there will be meeting of the Ladies Aid society at the church.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

The old time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular, because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

HARDING PLANNING APPEAL IN SUPPORT OF FOREIGN POLICY

Will Devote Western Trip To Preaching Gospel Of Accomplishment.

Augusta, Ga., April 3. — President Harding is planning a frank appeal to the country to support the foreign policies of his administration it was learned here today.

A considerable portion of the speeches which he will deliver in his western tour this summer will be devoted to a vigorous exposition and defense of the foreign policies which have been pursued for the last two years. Something more than a mere defense of the Republican policy as planned—instead of simply defending the record, the president plans to make a militant presentation for accomplishments of his administration and then challenge the Democrats and the critics within his party to a public comparison of policies.

Mr. Harding will not appear in the role of an apologist, but rather as an apostle of achievement, according to those who are concerned as to mapping his trip and his program.

The administration's defense of its record in foreign affairs is expected to be based on three principal corner stones: First, What has been done in the Far East, second, in Latin America, and third, Europe.

Harding Achievements
In the first case, the achievements of the Washington armament conference and the four-power pact guaranteeing the peace of the Pacific will be held an epochal accomplishment and as having prevented a possible war with Japan, which many international observers had predicted as possible before many years.

In Latin America, the recent Central American conference, in which most of the small republics of the south agreed to stop the continual petty warfare of the last quarter of a century, will be pointed to a tremendous step in the direction of permanent peace in this hemisphere. American mediation of the dispute between Peru and Chile and between Costa Rica and Panama, will be dwelt upon in this connection.

The European policy of the administration is looked upon by the president's advisers as being simple of presentation. The president will simply state that conditions in Europe have been such as to preclude American intervention without becoming hopelessly entangled in old world politics, and consequently the United States has refrained from "butting in" abroad in a situation where American help plainly was unwelcome.

The international court of justice at The Hague, even though organized under the league of nations, is the only agency of international peace now existing through which the United States can consistently operate.

Truck That Walks.
A German engineer has constructed a motor truck which does not move on wheels, but not unlike the Martians described by H. G. Wells in his "War of the Worlds," can stride with the help of "legs" across deserts and swamps, can wade "knee-deep" through rivers, stamp through snowfields and step across ditches, and fell tree trunks and other obstacles in its path, says a European dispatch to the Philadelphia Public Ledger. For this purpose it is furnished with two pairs of skids, one of which always rests on the ground, while the other is moving forward with the load. When "walking" normally its stride measures about four feet in length, but, like a human being, it can regulate it when walking uphill or when stepping across an obstacle in its way. With its skids, which are ten feet long, it strides along the roads at a pace of six miles per hour, or about twice as fast as an ordinary person can go. It can go backward, turn completely around its axles without moving from the spot, and it even walks sideways if required.

PROBATE OFFICE REPORT IS FILED

Lisbon, April 3.—Miss Lena Ellis, chief deputy in the probate office, has compiled the annual report of her office and will forward the same to the state authorities at Columbus.

From April 1, 1922, to March 30, 1923, there were 710 marriage authorized by the probate court of this county.

Following are those issued by months: April 24, May 51, June 85, July 52, August 79, September 75, October 70, November 54, December 66, January 41, February 44 and March 59. One remarkable thing shown by these figures is that there was a falling off in the number of licenses in December and an unlooked for increase in August, September and October. December has always rivaled June in the number of marriages but last year this was changed.

Fifty-seven persons from this county were sent to the insane asylum of the state. Eleven boys and girls were sent to industrial schools. Letters of guardianship were issued to 64 persons who took 77 children, 11 insane and 14 imbeciles as their wards.

One hundred and ninety-nine wills were admitted to probate. Letters testamentary were issued to 133 persons. Letters of administration were issued to 151 persons making a total of 289 new estates to be looked after by the court and their officers.

The report is very interesting to the student of vital statistics and represents a large amount of work in compiling.

FOR MOTHERS!

This Letter is of Vital Interest to You

Cambridge, Ohio—"During expectancy I was almost a physical wreck. I was nervous, could not sleep, suffered with nausea, or sick stomach, had backaches, pains in my side and bearing pains. I was so near down that I could not do anything. Finally I decided to give Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a trial. I had taken this medicine only a few days when I could see that my nerves were better, and by the time I had taken two bottles I felt as well as anyone could wish to be, did all my work and felt well and strong the remainder of the time. I had comparatively no suffering—was ill just a short time and I had a very fine healthy baby weighing nine pounds. The expectant mother will find 'Favorite Prescription' a great help in many ways."—Mrs. Milton Tipple, 707 S. 10th St.

Go to your neighborhood drug store today and get this prescription in tablets or liquid, or write Dr. Pierce, President Invalids' Hotel, in Buffalo, N. Y., for medical advice. It is free and strictly confidential.

Prominent Figures In "House Of David" Suit

Great interest has been attached to the trial, in Grand Rapids, Mich., of the suit of Mr. and Mrs. John Hansell, who demand $85,000 from "King Benjamin" Purnell, leader of the "House of David" cult, at Benton Harbor, alleging he secured that sum from them by fraud. Stories of grave immoralities in the sect, under the guise of religious rites, were told by Mrs. Helen Couch and Mrs. Hilda Pritchard, both of whom had been members of the sect. Mrs. Esther Hannaford Hansell, daughter of the plaintiffs, was once private secretary to "King Benjamin," and her testimony was most damaging. Mrs. August Felts, Mrs. Irene Sassman and Mrs. Iona Rozetta all told of the secret rites of the cult.

Five years ago the Bureau of Fish-All the lobsters were branded with of Oregon, 500 miles south of Puget Sound, assisted in planting some of the mark "E-17." One of these lobsters has been taken from the waters of Puget Sound.

READ THE WANT COLUMN.

INFORMATION YOU SHOULD HAVE

A large number of citizens of Salem and the immediate vicinity have recently inquired about the stock of THE SECURITY Building and Loan Association.

And, after they learn the real facts concerning this ESTABLISHED INSTITUTION, they immediately want to buy stock in THE SECURITY and they urge their friends to do the same.

NO "HIGH PRESSURE" SALESMEN

SECURITY might have decided to employ a "crew" of salesmen to dispose of its capital stock in a few days' time. But that would have resulted, as such procedure always does, in people being forced to buy against their will. Stockholders secured that way are unhappy, and SECURITY wants only such members as really want to belong.

Moreover, to have employed salesmen would have meant that salesmen's commissions would have to be paid and on a liberal basis. And the commissions would have been paid from Association funds, which is just another way of saying "from stockholders' money."

However, the character of the investment makes it unnecessary for SECURITY to put its capital stock in the hands of salesmen. There are hundreds of men and women in Salem who consider their SECURITY holdings the safest investment they have.

Security Wants To Sell Its Stock Right Here In Salem

SECURITY believes that all its stock should be purchased by Salemites. It is a Salem institution, operated for the benefit of the Salem community. It knows that every Salem man and woman who buys its capital stock will become a SECURITY booster.

Price of SECURITY stock is $100 (One Hundred Dollars) per share. There is a Membership Fee of $3 (Three Dollars) per share, ALL OF WHICH FEE GOES INTO THE RESERVE FUND and helps enhance the value of the stock. You are invited to become a member of THE SECURITY
